

Air Bike AB700

AB700

Bring a fresh new challenge to your offering with an air bike designed for tough cardio and HIIT workouts. A low-noise, low-maintenance belt-drive system increases air resistance the harder riders pedal, pushing everyone from beginners to cardio enthusiasts to their limits. Our air bike also passed rigorous endurance tests, so you can count on years of lasting durability on your cardio floor and in HIIT sessions. Choose the AB700 Air Bike to add an air of challenge to your fitness facility.
